

Description:

The Michigan Community Health Worker Alliance (MiCHWA), in collaboration with Henry Ford College is providing the MiCHWA standardized curriculum for the State of Michigan.

Upon completion, the student will receive a certificate from MiCHWA and will become MiCHWA-Certified. Competencies covered include:

- Role, Advocacy, and Outreach
- Legal & Ethical Responsibilities
- Organization & Resources
- Communication & Culture
- Teaching & Capacity Building
- Coordination, Documentation, & Reporting
- Healthy Lifestyles
- Behavioral Health

Training Pre-Requisites:

- Training is comprised of 126 hours (including 25 hours of independent self-study)
- High school diploma or FED
- Good oral and written communication skills
- Independent work in community setting (additional 40 hours), if not already employed in a CHW role

MICHIGAN COMMUNITY HEALTH WORKER ALLIANCE

COMMUNITY HEALTH WORK CERTIFICATION TRAINING PROGRAM

When: September 22nd-
November 19th, 2020

Where: Henry Ford College
100% Virtual Training

Cost: $1,200 per student.

*Students are responsible for purchasing their own textbook: Foundations for Community Health Workers 2nd Edition by Tim Berthold.

Contact:

Rebeca Guzman- guzmanr@detroitmi.gov
Cassandra Myers- cmyers17@hfcc.edu

Registration:
Please contact
Cmyers17@hfcc.edu

Space is limited to 26 students, so register today!